Circle 1000 Donors Raise $390,000

Past Chairmen of Circle 1000
Ginny Ueberroth, Arden Flamson, Judy Steele and Sandy Sewell

Scott Hamilton electrified the Circle 1000 audience at the 12th Annual Founders' Brunch just as he did the judges when he was competing in figure skating. Only this time instead of triple jumps and dazzling spins, he was talking about chemo, shaving his head and fighting a battle with the cancer that planted a solid toe-pick into his body. But the big smile and charisma are still the same, and he easily had everyone on their feet, applauding his courage, humor and sensitivity.

Circle 1000 was honored to have Scott as its keynote speaker and again says a big THANK YOU to all its donors at all levels of contribution for their tremendous support of Hoag Cancer Center.

This year's donations (in addition to $10,000 from Circle 1000 1998 reserves) have been allocated as follows:

$250,000

Hoag Cancer Center Cell Biology Lab, for new vaccines, freezers, equipment and lab expansions.

$125,000

As a portion of the pledge toward cancer-related services at Hoag's new East Addition.

$25,000

Hoag Cancer Center Endowment for Research.

Wesley Bellwood, long-time Major Underwriter for Circle 1000, and daughter Diane Stewart are shown with keynote speaker Scott Hamilton
